

Assessing your Child's Capabilities

Are you concerned your child's not developing at the expected rate?

Are you wanting to support your child's learning?

Psychological Assessment

Why would we need one?

- To identify your child's strengths and weaknesses to guide learning and decision making
- To measure your child's ability level in a range of areas including; oral language, reading level, comprehension and fluency, written expression, mathematical ability and fluency
- Obtain detailed results and recommendations to support your applications for funding with school, Centrelink or the NDIS.

Don't hesitate to guide your child in the right direction!
